Six regions. One private aircraft.

Most South Africa itineraries choose between the Cape, the coast and the bush. This one takes in all three and more, linked by private flights. Watch the country change beneath you, land at the airstrip nearest each lodge, and spend two nights at almost every stop: long enough to settle in, short enough to keep the journey moving.

YOUR AIRCRAFT

A Cessna 206 / 210, flown by your own pilot and host

SMALL BY DESIGN
Never more than four guests on board, so the aircraft is yours alone.

TRAVEL LIGHT
Soft bags only, 15 kg per person. Total passenger and luggage weight decides how many can fly.

WEATHER FIRST
Every flight depends on the weather and on your pilot's safety decisions.

1 DAYS 1 – 3 · 2 NIGHTS

CAPE TOWN & THE CONSTANTIA VALLEY

Mountain & vine

YOUR STAY

Steenberg Hotel & Spa

Your journey begins on a Constantia wine estate that dates back to 1682. Steenberg's 24 rooms and suites sit among 65 hectares of vineyards and gardens beneath the Steenberg Mountains, 25 minutes from the V&A Waterfront.

Spend a full day on the Cape Peninsula: Table Mountain, Kirstenbosch, the penguins at Boulders Beach or the drive to Cape Point. Evenings are for the estate's own wines at Tryn or Bistro Sixteen82.

STEENBERG
HOTEL & SPA

> In peak season, if Steenberg is full, we will offer a Cape Town hotel of a similar standard.

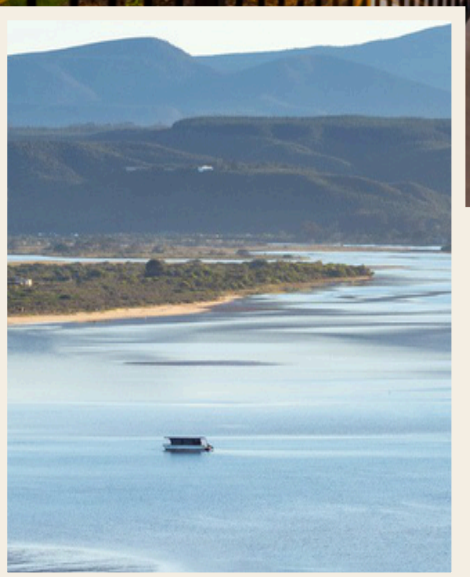

GOOD TO KNOW

Arriving on a long-haul flight? Keep the first afternoon free. Pack on the second evening: tomorrow you meet your pilot.

2 DAYS 3 – 5 · 2 NIGHTS

THE GARDEN ROUTE - PLETTENBERG BAY

Three Tree Hill

Spioenkop, Anglo-Boer War

An owner-hosted lodge on a rocky hillside in the KwaZulu- Natal Drakensberg foothills, overlooking the Spioenkop Game Reserve. Two guided activities a day are included: the flagship tour of the Battle of Spioenkop, told where it happened, horse trails, mountain biking, bush walks or a visit to Hambrook village. Then the library, with 3,000 books.

INCLUDED

All meals, local drinks and two guided activities a day.

Fugitives' Drift Lodge

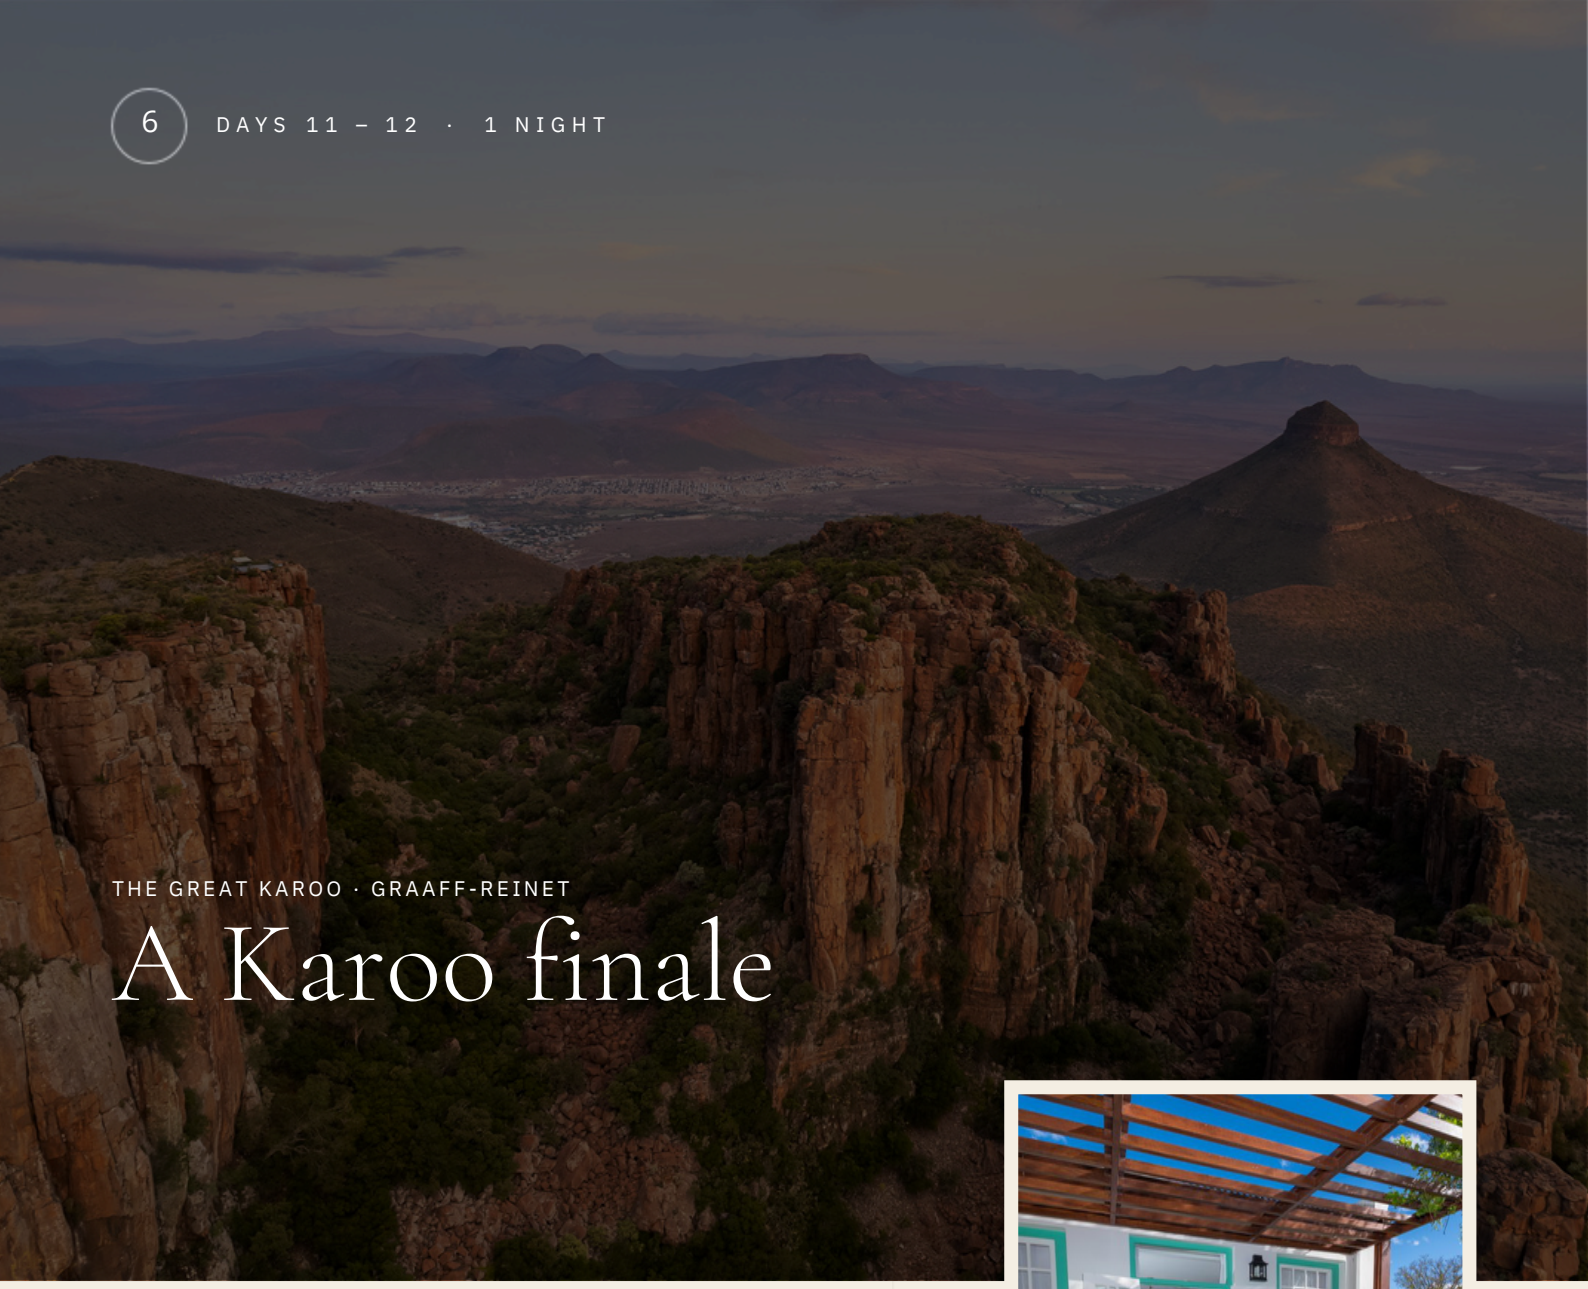

Isandlwana & Rorke's Drift, Anglo-Zulu War

A Natural Heritage Site overlooking both Isandlwana and Rorke's Drift, where David and Nicky Rattray pioneered heritage tourism in South Africa. Spacious rooms with private verandahs, a pool, library and museum, and guided tours by some of the country's finest storytellers.

INCLUDED

All meals, local drinks, the Graves walking tour and walks on the property. Battlefield tours are extra.

6 DAYS 11 – 12 · 1 NIGHT

THE GREAT KAROO · GRAAFF-REINET

A Karoo finale

YOUR STAY

Drostdy Hotel

or Oude Pastorie, Nieu-Bethesda

Leave the green hills behind and fly south-west over the Drakensberg escarpment as the land opens into the dry plains and flat-topped hills of the Karoo. Graaff-Reinet, founded in 1786, is almost surrounded by Camdeboo National Park. The Drostdy, first built in the early 1800s, keeps its heritage with a contemporary touch.

On your last morning, drive up to the Valley of Desolation or walk the historic town, then fly home to the Cape Winelands and transfer to Cape Town International.

ANNO 1805
DROSTDY HOTEL
GRAAFF-REINET

FLIGHT IN & OUT

Ladysmith to Graaff-Reinet, about 2 hours 35 minutes. Day 12 departure is timed to meet international connections.

GOOD TO KNOW

The Karoo is semi-desert: hot days, cold nights. Pack a warm layer.
